Kathmandu Super Saver - Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu

Upon your arrival in Kathmandu, you will be greeted by our representative and escorted to your hotel. The first day is free for you to explore the city at your leisure or take some rest after your journey.

Day 2: Kathmandu City Tour

The second day is when the real adventure begins. After breakfast, we will take you on a guided city tour of Kathmandu's most famous landmarks. The tour starts with a visit to Swayambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that is located on a hilltop overlooking the city. This temple complex is a blend of Buddhist and Hindu cultures, and the panoramic views from the top are breathtaking.

Next, we will head towards Pashupatinath Temple, a Hindu shrine dedicated to Lord Shiva. This temple is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and is one of the most sacred places for Hindu devotees worldwide. Here you can witness the traditional cremation ceremony that takes place on the banks of the holy Bagmati River.

Afterward, we will take you to the Boudhanath Stupa, the largest stupa in Nepal and one of the largest in the world. This temple is another UNESCO World Heritage Site and is considered one of the most sacred Buddhist pilgrimage sites.

In the evening, we will drop you back at your hotel, and you can spend the rest of the evening exploring the vibrant streets of Thamel, the heart of Kathmandu's tourist district.

Day 3: Bhaktapur City Tour

On the third day, we will take you on a tour of Bhaktapur, a medieval city located about 20 km east of Kathmandu. Bhaktapur is another UNESCO World Heritage Site and is known for its well-preserved ancient temples, palaces, and courtyards.

The tour starts with a visit to Durbar Square, the main square of the city, which is home to several temples and palaces built during the Malla dynasty. You can also witness the intricate wood carvings and brickwork that adorn the buildings.

Next, we will take you to Nyatapola Temple, a five-storied pagoda-style temple that is the tallest in Nepal. The temple is dedicated to the goddess Siddhi Lakshmi, and the views from the top are stunning.

In the evening, we will drop you back at your hotel, and you can spend the rest of the evening at your leisure.

Day 4: Departure from Kathmandu

On the last day of the tour, after breakfast, we will transfer you to the airport for your flight back home. The tour ends here, but the memories of your time in Kathmandu will last a lifetime.

Kathmandu, the capital city of Nepal, is a popular tourist destination known for its rich cultural heritage, ancient temples, and stunning natural beauty. It is a bustling city that attracts visitors from all over the world. If you are planning a trip to Kathmandu, you may want to consider the Kathmandu Super Saver, a package that offers excellent value for money and allows you to explore the best of Kathmandu.
